

Hamden Facility Reminders

Thank you for helping to make this a great competition!

- Please do not enter the building before 7:30am even if the building is open. Athletes and chaperones should wait until a coach from their team is present before entering the facility.
- No food or beverages in the spectator area or on deck (except water)
- No glass containers on deck or in the spectator area
- Athletes, officials and assigned volunteers only on deck; chaperones, parents, spectators and other non-deck volunteers must remain in the spectator area.
- No degelling/deknosing in the facility. There will be a hair gelling station set up in the hallway behind the pool locker rooms. Please keep gelling to the tarped area. There will be a $100 fine for degelling or gelling outside of the tarped area.
- Please respect other spectators and do not stand at the bars, and please remain seated in the bleachers to watch events. Remember to remain quiet for figure competitions. If spectators are too noisy during figures they will be asked to clear the spectator area
- Athlete and team bags should be kept at the assigned team table on the upper floor. No bags in the locker room, spectator area, on deck or in C107.
- Dry restrooms are upstairs from the pool level (1st floor) and down the hall, please follow the signs. No athletes in the dry restrooms.
- Swimmers using the larger gym locker room across the hall from the pool should make sure they are no longer dripping wet before entering. The floor gets very slippery when it's wet.
- All clubs may use the upper floor C107 room for stretching and land drilling. Athletes must be dry to use this room. No food or beverages in C107. Nothing may be stored in this room, even temporarily, including yoga mats and bags.
